DALLAS DEBTS.

THOSE FOR THE MONTH OF MAY NOW LIQUIDATED.

An Incendiary Gets In His Villainous Work—Oak Cliff Once More Incorporated—The Opera.

DALLAS, TEX., June 9.—The city to-day began the payment of the various estimates for the month of May, and at a late hour to-night all departments had been paid. The tax collectors have been rustling and the city found it unnecessary to borrow money to meet the claims.

There is a general feeling here that the worst is passed and that money matters will be much easier from now on.

Last night the residence of S. J. Britt, in North Dallas, was burglarized and then set on fire. Mr. Britt and family were absent from home, but returned in time to see the incendiary just as he left the premises. The house and contents, valued at $2500, was totally destroyed. Insurance to the amount of $2000 in the North British and Mercantile was held by Mr. Britt.

George Harris, a negro, was stabbed last night by Alex. Fletcher. The wound is not dangerous. Fletcher gave bond.

Oak Cliff.
Special to the Gazette.

OAK CLIFF, DALLAS COUNTY, TEX., June 9.—The election on incorporation was held. The vote was very light, the opposition to incorporation not being very strong. The next thing in order will be the election for city officers, which will take place as soon as possible. The deficit city government had created and contracted to pay is $17,000, and the new council will probably assume this indebtedness, as it would not do for the new city to start out with an unfavorable financial condition. The debts are legitimate, and should be paid.

The opening night of the summer theater is the topic of conversation here to-day. A few words will express all. There was a full house, full costumes and full enthusiasm; everything was complete and up to the standard; all parts well supported and made a break or borgee throughout. The enterprise is worthy of praise.

The Texas and Pacific railroad has announced that they will give special railway rates to opera parties from Fort Worth to attend night performances or matinees.

The Power of Money.
What an influence for good or evil is exerted by the proper or improper use of money. It seems to be the first essential of modern life. Said indeed is the first of that which is the most powerful of all forces, and without friends. Especially in cases of sickness is the need of money felt most pressing, and yet even the rich with all their money fail to find it when they need it, and die, whereas if their money was rightly expended and the proper remedies applied they might retain health and strength.

Still, in spite of this and much other testimony there are many who refuse to try the remedy, seeming to prefer to pay large fees to physicians, or visit distant springs in hopes of recovery. The great truth, however, ever shines brightly and that is, that no one who ever gave B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial ever found disappointment thereafter.

O. H. Kuehler, Talladega, Ala., writes: "I had blood disease for years, and nothing benefited me, although I paid two hundred and fifty dollars for treatment. At last I tried B. B. and found it a quick and cheap blood purifier."

Texas Lard in Liverpool.
Following is an extract of a business letter to the Fort Worth packery, dated Liverpool, England, May 27, 1891, and tells a story that means something.

LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND, May 27, 1891.
To Fort Worth Packery:
GENTLEMEN—Confirming mine of the 23d, I went down to the Harrington dock yesterday to personally inspect the 700 tierces Fort Worth lard which arrived here yesterday per steamer Astronomer, from New Orleans, and am pleased to report to you my good opinion of the excellent quality. I think it all that my old friends, Messrs. Goodrich & Co., New York, describe it (and as printed in newspapers) A1. I shall be quite ready to trade with you for further lots when opportunity arises. If you have any on hand when this arrives it will be easy to make me a cable offer, and you will soon get a response.

There would be nothing in future to prevent you getting a direct European market for this lard, but risk in leakage, having to come through such warm latitudes. I will work all your make if you ship properly, and this lot arrived all o. k. Yours truly,
No. 14 Victoria street, Liverpool.

General Notes.
The packery is now running regularly upon the following average: Hogs, 500 per day; beefs, 70 per day; sheep, 100 per day; calves, all they can get. Orders are, General Manager Barnum says, seven days' deep on the file, and the entire force is working extra hours.

The foundations are going in rapidly for the immense smoker at the packery.

Young & Kuhlen of this city recently sold 1300 steers, known as the Long steers, to Mr. Goddard, a prominent Hot Springs, S. D., stockman, and made the shipment in good order. Col. Young also sold 300 steers to the same party. The entire lot were two's and three's, and the price was $14.
